FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Norfolk Commissioner of the Revenue Offers Extended Hours During State Income Tax Season

(Norfolk, Virginia – April 3, 2003) Norfolk's Commissioner of the Revenue, Sharon M. McDonald, has announced that her office is offering extended Saturday hours to help Norfolk citizens in preparing their 2002 State Income Tax forms. The Office will be open Saturday mornings beginning April 5th and ending April 26th, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The service is free of charge.

The service is for Norfolk residents only, and tax filers must have a completed Federal Tax Return before their State Return can be processed. The deadline to file Virginia State Income Taxes is May 1st.

In addition to the Saturday hours, Norfolk taxpayers may visit the Commissioner of the Revenue's Office at City Hall, 810 Union Street, Norfolk, Monday through Friday. Normal office hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Free State Income Tax service is available year around. This service is free of charge.

For information, contact the Commissioner of the Revenue Income Tax Team at 441-2277. Information is also available on the Commissioner of the Revenue website at <http://www.norfolk.gov/Revenue>.
